Try hard to show yourself worthy of God's approval as a laborer who need not be ashamed, giving a straight furror in your proclamation of the truth. (II Timothy 2:15, NEB). William Carey College faculty and staff deem it a privilege to work with their students. It is, therefore, a bonus pleasure to be chosen as the faculty member the student body selects as the person they want to honor in their college annual. Mr. Maury Shurds is a scholar, devoted husband and a friend of students. We offer our congratulations as we do dedicate the 1978 Crusader.

Each year nominations are received from all faculty and administrative personnel for the selection of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Final selections are then carried out by a special faculty committee. The students are recognized for their excellence in academic achievement, their competent leadership ability and their willingness to serve the college and the community. It is an honor to be nominated, because the students represent the finest in academic standards.

Martha Ann Waller*

Miss Martha Ann Waller began her reign as 1978 Miss Carey College February 7, by taking her traditional walk down the runway, her arms full of flowers, trophy and a scholarship certificate, and her crown slightly awry.

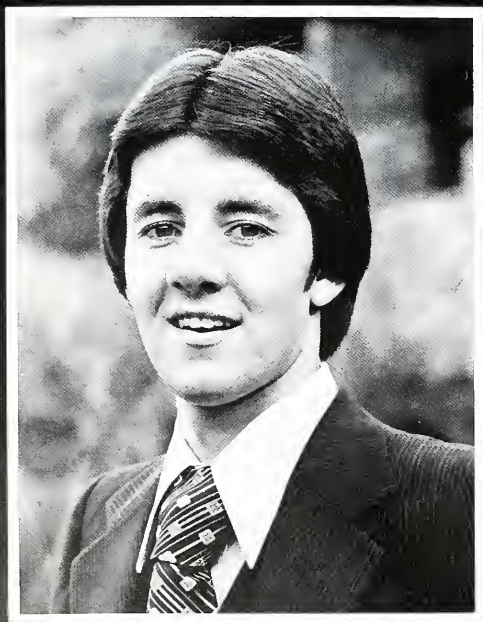

The pageant was held in Thomas Hall Auditorium on the Carey Campus. First alternate was Miss Wanda Geddie and second alternate was Miss Susan Clark. The top three winners presented vocal selections for their talent.

Miss Suzanne Freeman, outgoing Miss Carey College, served as emcee through the evening. Guest entertainers were the Laurel High School Showstoppers and 1976 Miss Mississippi and Miss Carey College, Bobby Wood.

Virginia Scott was producer for the event; Robbie Pinkerton was stage manager; Ronny Oswald, Phillip Fortenberry and Tom Jacobs were musical directors. Others assisting were the WCC Trucking Company, which included Hazel Alfred, Mark Bailey, Debbie Ivy, Buddy Dismukes and Jayne Hansen.

Judges were Dr. Paul Anderson, James Cox, Patsy Puckett Gray, Linda Magee and Stevens E. Moore, Jr.

Crusaders Win Denominational Tournament at Home

Exciting is the only word that could describe the 1977-78 men's basketball team. The Denominational Tournament provided more student involvement than any other activity all year. One Jackson, Mississippi newspaper stated that the crowd was the difference. We thought so too, for our Crusaders "sneaked" away with the crown while spearing Mississippi College's and Belhaven's hopes with a 6 inch. or was that a 6 point sword.

We are William Carey! The chant originated during the WCC-USM women's basketball game and it got louder as the night progressed. We certainly were proud of our girls, for the Lady Eagles were unable to fly home due to clipped wings ... Score: WCC-84, USM-79. We not only defeated our crosstown rivals this year, but proved victorious in a majority of the games we played. After all, WE ARE WILLIAM CAREY!

Intramural Football

There were five teams participating in the Intramural Football activities for the 1977 season. The teams finished as follows: Mystery Meat, Chi Beta Phi, BSU-MA, Team Five and Music. Mystery Meat clinched the championship for the second straight year, ending the season with a 46-9 win over Team Five. Every person actively participated, giving a new dimension to campus life. We expect the best of future intramurals to add excitement and enjoyment to William Carey's overall development of the student.

"Crescendo"

William Carey College, on its main campus in Hattiesburg, has a very unusual summer theatre program. It is called Carey Summer Showcase and operates as a dinner theatre. The endeavor has been called "South Mississippi's unique dinner theatre". Its uniqueness is attributed to several factors. First, instead of students paying a fee to participate as is customary in many college summer theatres, each member of the company is paid a stipend. Secondly, the program showcases the writing talents, as well as the performing abilities, of young people. Showcase was begun in 1975. The past three seasons have included two original musicals, three musical revues and in 1977 James Thurber's A Thurber Carnival. There are nine student members of the company and three faculty members. With the limited number of persons in the group, those participating receive a wide range of experience, from waiting tables to appearing on stage. Auditions, held in the spring, are open to any person who is at least eighteen years of age.

Showcase

"A Thurber Carnival"

Talent Show

"Talent Night at Carey" was presented on October 25, 1977 at Thomas Hall Auditorium. The Student Government Association and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia sponsored the event. Mike Gentry, SGA President, presented the awards as Mr. Gene Brack, Master of Ceremonies, announced the winners for 1977. They were: Tommy Register—Third Place, Christie Thompson and Philip Fortenberry—Second Place, Hazel Alfred—First Place.

Halloween Carnival

Thanksgiving Banquet

The New Life Singers, under the direction of Kevin Idigpio, entertained at the Thanksgiving Dinner on November 21st. Keith Thompson and his sister Chelle captured the audience with their presentation of the song "You Light Up My Life". The Faculty and Staff served the meal and carried the student's trays. This was their way of restating how "thankful" they are for the Carey students. It was a fine Thanksgiving.

Christmas Banquet

The annual Christmas Dinner was held on December 6th in Wilkes Dining Hall. It was an entertaining evening with Joe Butler and Lynda Wells appearing as Mr. and Mrs. Claus. Musical entertainment was provided by The Madrigal Singers and Carpenters Wood. Mike Gentry welcomed everyone and introduced Billy Browning who was host commentator for the Gong Show. Mr. Gene Brack was the winner of that event. The Faculty-Staff-Administration Scholarship Award was presented to Elbert Charpie as the honor presentation at the conclusion of the evening.

“Tartuffe”

The first production of the Serampore Players for the 1977-78 academic year was Tartuffe by Moliere. The three-act French comedy was staged as an arena production with special emphasis given to the opulent furnishings and costumes of the late 1600's. The cast of eleven performed the Moliere classic with authenticity typical of the period.

"Dr. Doolittle"

The Serampore Players winter production was "Doctor Doolittle" adapted from Hugh Lofting's children's classic. Playing to full houses the production was a delightful addition to the holiday season. Directed by Gene Brack the production involved approximately 20 Carey students. The animal costumes proved to be most challenging but once again the Serampore Players proved successful in every detail from Burr-Burr the rabbit to the exotic two-headed Pushmi-Pullyu.

I am Today.

Do not use me lightly, for I affect your tomorrows.

Remember me for what I am -- opportunity for whatever you choose.

I am Today.

I am your hope for I give you the chance to remake your yesterdays.

- Neil Wyrick, Jr.

1978, a year of special development for our school, brings a "new today" to William Carey College.

The pessimism prevailing on many private college campuses today is nowhere to be seen on our campus. The "future of our tomorrow" is very bright.

You, the Carey students, are our greatest asset. You are our hope for tomorrow. May the memories by this 1978 Crusader strengthen you in "whatever you choose" during the remainder of your tomorrows.

I want to be your special friend through all the days to come.

*William Carey College wishes to thank everyone who contributed to the 1978
CRUSADER*

I Am Today

I am Today.

I greeted you with the crimson of the dawn.

I met you with the challenge of hours yet to come.

I am a friend as old as the years you know.

I am Today.

Within one small sprinkling of time I shall become yesterday.

*I shall have lived, and looked, and lingered yet
 awhile with you,*

and then I shall be gone forever.

Look at me well, for I am your time of promise.

Do not use me lightly, for I affect your tomorrows.

Remember me for what I am—opportunity for whatever you may choose.

I am Today.

I have lived as long as man.

A thousand times a thousand times since God made night and day.

*I have seen the earth green with the grace of peace
and also black with the curse of war.*

*I have held the fragile promises of men until tomorrow,
and then watched them shattered with disrespect.*

I am Today

I am no babe in the woods.

no wide-eyed child of time.

*I am your hope, for I give you the chance to remake
your yesterdays.*

Neil Wyrick, Jr.

With great sincerity I wish to thank those who helped to make the 1978 Crusader a success. Special thanks goes to Jim McFatter, Crusader Photographer.
